

Connect through Serving

Whether you volunteer by setting up chairs, hanging pipe & drape, or whatever you do it is most certainly an act of worship unto the Lord (Romans 12:1; 1 Cor. 10:13).

As volunteers, we present ourselves as willing and humble servants waking up early or staying late to serve the body by these practical means. This ultimately facilitates discipleship whether through corporate worship, Bible study, or the precious teaching time for our little ones. It's also a great opportunity to develop relationships and fellowship within the body, given the smaller teams and working together toward a common goal.
